Dear Art:

In the course of the next week or two someone on the good Doctor Houck's staff will prepare a letter of thanks to you over my signature for your "outstanding presentation" before the class of the first Midcareer Course, etc., etc. Presumably it will be reasonably well written, will say all the appropriate things and will be suitable for framing, showing to the Director and insertion in your 201 file. I suggest immediate disposition in your Classified Trash container.

But I want you to know how personally grateful I am for the part you played in this first course. Without this kind of support, it would not have got off the ground. I know this and I'm sure you do too.

Gratefully yours,
